Huerta is Confident, Scouts Intervention.

MEXICO CITY, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Great suspense prevails among foreigners at the capital pending announcement of the attitude of the Washington authorities. Many believe intervention is certain and are preparing to leave. Others are equally sure of recognition. The local press is founding much speculation on the fact that former anti-American papers now are for America.

Monster Coaling Station for California City.

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The largest coaling station in the world is to be established at California City by the United States government for the great fleet of war ships soon to occupy Pacific waters. When the plans now being prepared by the engineering experts of the Navy Department have been executed the big bunkers situated upon the Marin shore will have a capacity sufficient to supply fuel to Uncle Sam's entire fleet of fighting ships for at least one year without being replenished.

Urge Council to Advise.

WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Control of the proposed national financial system by an enlarged government board with a "Federal reserve council," representing the bankers acting in an advisory capacity, is proposed by the Currency and Banking Committee of the National Chamber of Commerce.

The report of the committee, addressed to President Harry A. Wheeler of Chicago, was made public today in a document issued by the Senate Banking Committee. The document also contains the views of many Middle West bankers and business men on the Owen-Glass currency measure.

The verdict of the Chamber of Commerce on the Owen-Glass bill is that it is "a piece of constructive legislation," and that it "embodies in a large degree elements necessary to provide the nation with a safe currency and banking system."

The recommendations regarding the Federal reserve board follow: "The bill provides for a board of seven, of whom at least one shall have had banking experience. This element of banking experience can be strengthened without weakening the element of public control."

"We therefore suggest that the Federal reserve board be composed of nine, that the original seven shall choose two additional members, subject to the approval of the President, and that the board thus constituted shall elect the governor and the vice-governor of the Federal reserve board."

"The members of the Federal reserve board should be the equals in point of character, ability and experience of the principal banking officers of this country and Europe. The question of compensation should therefore have the serious consideration of Congress. The compensation of the governor and the vice-governor should be fixed by the board. While men of requisite qualifications might be found who would be satisfied with a moderate salary in such positions, what is wanted is the highest quality of service."

"In dignity the Federal reserve board should rank with the Supreme Court, and it should be equally free from any suspicion of political control. This is also in accordance with the best banking experience and practice in all parts of the world."

"There should be most definite and well-developed methods of voting, for the consideration of the Federal reserve board, and the judgment of the banking and business interests of the country, in order that the board may be kept in constant touch with business conditions and trade requirements everywhere. We therefore suggest the organization of a Federal reserve council, elected by and representing the directors of the Federal reserve banks and serving in an advisory capacity. This council should

SPEAKS IN COMPETITION FOR PRIZE CUP.

Makes Strong Bid for Convention Next Year at Session of Association Now Being Held at Winnipeg, at Which Over Thousand Delegates Are in Attendance.

WINNIPEG (Man.) July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Phillip D. Wilson made a decided hit today at the convention of the National Association of Real Estate Exchanges in the five-minute talk in competition for the cup donated by the Chicago Realty Board. More than fifty representatives spoke, and though it had been planned to have this brought to a conclusion during the afternoon, it was found impossible to do so, and some fourteen spoke tonight during the concert. The formal donation to the association of the cup was also made during the evening.

Los Angeles is making a strong bid for the 1914 convention and though nothing definite will be decided at the convention, it now appears likely that a resolution will be passed which will practically make it a certainty.

The morning session was taken up with addresses of welcome, the afternoon by the five-minute speeches and this evening more than 2000 were present at what was declared to be the most successful convention ever given by the association.

Tomorrow the real business of the convention starts. There are upwards of 1000 in attendance and it is undoubtedly the largest and best convention ever held by the association.

DE LA BARRA PREDICTS PEACE.

Mexico's Minister to France Confident Friendly Relations Will Exist With United States.

(ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 28.)

MEXICO CITY (via Jalisco) July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The frank attitude of the United States in wishing to thoroughly understand the Mexican situation will result in the re-establishment of the most friendly relations between the two republics, recognition of the existing provisional government and re-establishment of peace.

This was the opinion expressed by Francisco de la Barra, once Provisional President of Mexico and twice Minister of Foreign Relations, who now has been appointed Minister to Vera Cruz, whence he will go to New York by the steamship Morro Castle on Thursday.

"I am satisfied now that when the Washington government is in receipt of all facts of the Mexican situation the United States will act with full justice to Mexico, in accordance with international law and for the preservation of the most friendly and cordial relations which always have existed between," he declared.

Can't Master Drink Habit.

Drinking men never live long enough to boast of how "they whipped the drink habit," but they all live long enough to realize how badly drink habit whipped them. You cannot beat it, therefore, you should make up your mind to take treatment.

The Neal Treatment—stop before you are completely "down and out." In three days the Neal Drink Habit Treatment will remove the craving for drink—without the use of hypodermic injections—and restore you to perfect self-mastery. The Neal Treatment is a safe, sure, vegetable treatment that never fails. It is administered at sixty local institutes in the United States, Canada and Australia. Call at the Los Angeles Neal Institute, 945 South Olive street, or 160 Hill street, Ocean Park, California, and investigate, or write or phone for book of information, names and references. Phone: Broadway 4602; A4072. Drug habits successfully treated.

Local Team Must Win Games or Get in Bad.

Good Chance to Make Up the Lost Ground.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

Those ancient and honorable foes, the Spoonsbills and the Angels, are to lock horns this afternoon on the Washington Park Acres in a seven-game series, which has all the earmarks of one grand and bloody affair. Probably because the two teams represent the extreme ends of the Coast league the rivalry has always been very keen and at times has bordered on the bitter.

McCredie has called "Hank" Berry's goat by his attitude of superior indifference on all occasions for things that came out of the South, but this season he has been forced to eat some of his proud speeches, and it was not until he put on that grand landslide drama with the Seals that Portland has been able to take a good long baseball breath.

True, the Ducks are at the top of the league at the present reading of the minutes, but the way that the team is going this season, nobody knows just when the big blow-up is coming. Not so very long ago the Oyster Pirates from Oakland were at the head of the parade. Then the street was sprinkled and the bunch skidded on one of the bands and did not stop the merry whirl until the bottom was hit.

There is no doubt but something has been radically wrong with our Seraphic bunch. The gloom bug and several other things have been designated as the reason therefore, but the real facts are hardly available. When Portland comes south, no quarter is given and none is expected, and it is a cinch that none has ever been offered and never will be, unless the golden age sets in.

Mr. Chech or Mr. Ryan will probably work for the home guard, while "Hi" West appears to be a good man for the mound; from a strategic standpoint. However, this matter is purely one of conjecture, despite all that is said by the wise ones.

However, there is one thing that must be said right here and now, and that is that these Seraphs had better forget their little troubles and win a few games, otherwise the public, that much-abused, collective individual, will sit on the said Seraphs. This is a cruel world, boys, but the fans must have a few games slipped on the winning side of the ledger, otherwise somebody is going to "get theirs."

HEINE RELEASED BY DEL HOWARD.

SEAL OUTFIELDER GIVEN UNCONDITIONAL PAPERS.

Team Over the Limit and Zimmerman Has Been a Big Disappointment—Started Out Well for First Two Months, Then Fell Into Hitting Slump.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] SAN FRANCISCO, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Heine Zimmerman, the Seal outfielder, was handed his unconditional release by Manager Del Howard on the latter's return from Los Angeles this morning, so the big fellow is free to go where he pleases. This information does not come as a surprise to local fans, as Zimmerman has been left at home the last couple of trips the team has made.

In accounting for the release of Zimmerman, Manager Howard said that his squad was over the limit and that it was necessary to let someone go. Zimmerman has been a big disappointment. He rounded into splendid shape by spending the last couple of days at home, and started off the season as the league's best hitter, but he fell down badly after the first month or so.

While Zimmerman hit so poorly in the series against the Angels last week that Howard will send Schaller, the new outfielder, into left field, the opening game of the series with the Oaks tomorrow, Schaller, who hit the ball at a .311 clip in the American Association last season, will bat in fourth place, the cleanup job.

The Veteran Foes.

Matty Baldwin (above) and Leach Cross.

Who settle the leadership of the "Old Masters" in the squared circle tonight.

One for Matty.

VAN THINKS BALDWIN SHOULD BEAT CROSS.

Bean Eater Far More Impressive in Training and Is Better Two-Handed Fighter—Long Range Only Hope for Dentist—Local Boys Want More Recognition Than Is Given at Present Time.

BY DE WITT VAN COURT.

LEACH CROSS stands a ten-to-even favorite in his match tonight with Matty Baldwin. This is probably due to the fact that the fans have seen Cross in action and not Baldwin. Cross's clean-cut victory over Bud Anderson also has turned their heads in his favor.

The fact that Baldwin holds two decisions over Leach hardly warrants this kind of betting—also the fact that the New York dentist has done little training for this contest.

MATTY LOOKS GOOD.

While I have never seen either boy in a real contest, judging from the showing made in their training, Baldwin is by far the more impressive of the two. Matty seems to have a much better variety of blows and is a better boxer in every way. His judge of distance and time is all that could be asked for and he looks sturdier and stronger. He is built more for a long, hard contest than Leach.

Leach has the reputation for being a very heady boxer, but so has Matty. I believe the coming contest will be as much of a match of wits as anything else.

CROSS'S HOPE IS LONG RANGE. During their training, Baldwin has not confined himself principally to long left-hand jabs throughout the contest. I believe he will have a better chance to win at this style than any other.

His natural height and reach give him a decided advantage in this respect. But Matty is one of the best body fighters seen here in some time, and may be able to work himself inside of Leach's guard, in which case he would make things very interesting for Cross.

BALDWIN BEST PUNCHER.

As for hitting, Matty seems to have an advantage in this respect because he is a better two-handed fighter.

M'LOUGHLIN WINS, BRINGS DAVIS CUP TO AMERICA.

England's Veteran, Dixon, Bites Dust Before Speedy Son of the Golden West—First Set Duce Score 8-6, Then Mack Wades Through the British Lion in Jig Time—Yankies Win Cup by Score of 3 to 1.

[BY CABLE AND A. F. TO THE TIMES.]

WIMBLEDON (Eng.) July 28.—World supremacy in lawn tennis rests with the United States. The struggle for the Dwight F. Davis trophy, emblematic of the international tennis championship, ended today on the Wimbledon courts in a victory for the United States, when Maurice E. McLoughlin, the American singles champion, defeated Charles F. Dixon, the veteran English player, at 8-6, 6-4, 6-3.

The rules of the cup contests called for the best three in five matches, and the Americans previously having taken a match each in the singles and the doubles, were the winners of the coveted trophy when Dixon went down before McLoughlin, the score by matches then being United States 3, Great Britain, 1.

The Britishers had gained their only point when J. S. Parke, the Irish player, won a singles match from McLoughlin last week.

The official scores of the tournament, however, will read: United States, 3; Great Britain, 2; for after the McLoughlin-Dixon match today, Morris Williams of Philadelphia played his scheduled match with Parke, the Irishman winning after five sets, 6-2, 6-7, 6-7, 6-4, 6-3.

The Davis cup now goes back to the hand of its donor after the most interesting fight for its possession since it first left home in 1903. The victory of the Americans today will be all the more memorable because it was the first time in the history of the cup that seven countries—the United States, Canada, Australia, South Africa, Germany, France and Belgium—competed in elimination matches for the honor of challenging the British holders.

Despite his loss in singles to Parke last Friday, McLoughlin generally is given credit for lifting the cup. The dazzling, daring play of the Californian and his remarkable action during the tournament so endeared him to the British followers of the game that in spite of the keen disappointment of this terrible crowd which witnessed today's crucial match gave the Californian the spontaneous ovation usually reserved for home idols.

British tennis enthusiasts had not been so optimistic that they would retain the trophy after McLoughlin and Harold G. Hackett won the doubles match from Dixon and H. Koper Barrett Saturday; but they were confident that Dixon would make a supreme effort to defeat McLoughlin today.

The veteran English player made the effort, putting all the fitness and science of which he is master into the game; but his youthful opponent after the first set broke down his defense at every turn. The American first appeared over-anxious because of the responsibility resting upon him, for in the opening set the loss of one of his service games and inaccuracy of drives gave the Englishman enough scope to make a deuce set before victory perched upon the racket of the Californian.

In the second set McLoughlin got into his stride, and then he treated the crowd to a quality of service and overhead strokes never before seen on the historic Wimbledon courts. Even his ground strokes had improved so much that they hardly seemed to be those of the player who had lost his match in this department of the game to Parke last Friday.

British followers of tennis are depressed over the possibility of recovering the cup and predict that it will remain in the United States for at least five years, as there are no young players in sight to take the place of the veteran experts, of whom Clarke, the youngest, is over 30 years old.

Robert D. Wrenn, president of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, said Wrenn, "simply overpowered his clever opponent. Improvement in the ground strokes of the American since last Friday was almost unbelievable. The efficiency of

WHAT ENGLAND THINKS ABOUT IT.

LONDON, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] "Dixon is 40 and stout, McLoughlin is 32 and brimming over with virility."

"McLoughlin is 32 and Williams 22. Our best men are over 40. Youth will be served."

These two quotations from papers this morning fairly well sum up the British explanation of the defeat of the English team by the Americans for the Davis cup. Universal praise is showered on McLoughlin, to whom the victory is chiefly ascribed.

"No one is likely to grudge America her splendid victory. It was thoroughly deserved," says the Sporting Life. All the experts agree with this sentiment, pointing out that the strenuousness of the match is indicated by the fact that the winner, of one point in the doubles on Saturday would have allowed the Britishers to retain the cup.

his service also has increased since his arrival in England. I am inclined to believe McLoughlin was slightly stale last Friday. His recovery has been marvelous. Today he played the greatest game I ever saw him put up."

McLoughlin modestly disclaimed credit for winning the cup. "I had no plan of battle when I stepped on the courts today," the Californian said. "I certainly did not feel confident of winning, but I felt physically fit for a hard match. I want another trial at A. F. Williams, the English singles champion, if I can get away for a trip to England next summer."

The exhibition match won by Parke over Williams was rather tame, neither man seemingly playing up to his best form, and the American apparently not taking the contest as seriously as he would have done if the fate of the cup had depended on it. The score by points:

WOLGAST STARTS SOUTH AFTER THE CHAMPION.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] After having his damaged left hand put in a new plaster cast and a consultation with his physician, Ad Wolgast, accompanied by Manager Tom Jones, hurriedly boarded a train tonight for Los Angeles to talk fight with Champion Willie Ritchie. Wolgast says he is going to fight Ritchie in Los Angeles. This conversation relative to such a large amount of money has been heard before in pugilistic affairs, and until some of the shining metal is put on exhibition the fight fans will view the affair skeptically.

Wolgast is going into this match-making business against the advice of his physician, Dr. Arthur Beardslee, of this city. Dr. Beardslee examined the lightweight's hand yesterday and reported that it is doubtful if Wolgast will ever be able to bring about such a go, no matter all right," said Beardslee, "but you cannot tell when he will injure it."

again. Wolgast sustained a dislocation and fracture of a bone in his left hand. The injury has bothered him for some time. It has a tendency to make him hesitantly with his glove and it can easily be thrown out of alignment Wolgast to take a long rest before thinking of fighting as early as September. But he has come returning to the ring, and he will have to take the chance.

Ritchie has a date with Coffroth the first part of next month to talk business, and the local promoter declares that he would not be adverse to bidding for the bout, although he admits that Wolgast has come back as a box office attraction.

Coffroth, however, is at work on a Ritchie-Tommy Murphy card for one of the September holiday dates. "Murphy is the fellow the public wants to see against Ritchie next," said Coffroth. "Murphy has beaten Wolgast decisively and is entitled to the chance. All you hear is talk of a Ritchie-Murphy match, and I will try and bring about such a go, no matter what comes of the Ritchie-Wolgast matter."

NEWELL SHOWS GREAT SPEED IN BEACH TOURNEY.

Has Developed Terrible Service and Wallops Opponent With Great Ease—Freeman Wins the Three-Set Match from Bacon, and Dawson Beats Young Barber. Bundy to Make First Appearance Today.

PRECEDENT was hopelessly smashed yesterday at Long Beach when, in the first round of the Southern California tennis championships, some first-class tennis delighted a large crowd.

The bright and shining light of the day's play was Kenny Newell of the Pasadena Tennis Club, also a U.S.C. Trojan, who burst into the limelight by taking Gerald Young, reputation et al, and trimming him to the queen's taste. Kenny had everything and there was nothing to stop him.

Newell showed himself to be the owner and sole proprietor of a regular McInnis tennis champion. He was old Young and Horace Donnell said that Newell's service exceeded that of the auburn-haired northerner. At all events, Newell's service was about as easy to handle as a parish elephant, and he had no trouble whatever with Young.

NEWELL SHINES.

Newell ran out at 4-1 in the first set, Young having broken even with him until the ninth game, when Newell broke into his service. In the second set Newell's serve was working even better, and he ran the score to 4-1 before Young braced and won his own service again.

Then Newell won his service, Young made a final effort to stop the red-headed wonder in the last game and ran the game up to deuce. Here Newell made a tremendous smash and his racket slipped from his hand and cracked across the handle, but he took a chance and continued playing, winning the match with his broken racket.

DAWSON WINS.

Ward Dawson provided more of the thrills in his match with Allyn Barber. The former Southern California champion demonstrated his class by beating the youngster 6-2, 4-1. Barber put up a great fight, but Dawson knew too much for him.

Barber won the first and fifth games on his own service in the first set, and was very wild. Dawson covered a great deal of court and hardly seemed to be exerting himself, placing his shots with care. Barber was unable to handle Dawson's service successfully, driving it into the net time after time.

In the second set Barber commenced to drive better and the games seemed much more winning his service up to 4 all. On the ninth game Barber weakened and Dawson broke into his service, with some very prettily-placed shots, and then won his own service easily.

FREEMAN IN FRONT.

At the same time that Newell and Young were fighting it out in front of the grand stand, Young's old sidekick, Bacon, was having a battle to the death with Len Freeman. Bacon nabbed the first set 7-5, and then the old war-horse came back and by some brilliant volleying evened matters by taking the second set 6-4.

The third set provided the best tennis of the match. Freeman's determination to return everything on his side of the net won him lots of points, and after a mighty struggle he landed the set and match 7-5.

H. V. D. Jones of San Francisco and Estor Rogers of Trachon school put up a pretty fight in the open singles. Jones won the first set with comparative ease, 6-3, but Rogers came back very strong in the second set and evened matters by taking it 4-1. The last set was a corker, each man fighting for every point and Rogers winning 7-5.

LADIES SHINE.

The preliminary rounds in the ladies' handicap singles brought out some very good play. The two best matches of the day were won by Miss Jessie Griggs and Miss Walter Ellis. Miss Ellis, giving Miss Taft a handicap of 15 points over other games, showed some first-class tennis and disposed of her opponent 6-3, 6-1. Miss Griggs, playing from scratch, defeated Miss Hinshaw with 60 handsets, 6-3, 6-4. Miss Cullen defeated Miss Rogers 7-5, 6-3, in a very hard-fought match.

When better tennis than was shown yesterday is presented for today, the tennis matches will be the feature of the tournament.

Junior singles: Champion beat Hancock, 6-3, 6-2; John beat Emory, 6-3, 6-2; J. M. Miller beat Caruth, 6-3, 6-2; Hawks beat Griggs, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Goodwin, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Kewitt, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Kewitt, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Kewitt, 6-3, 6-2.

Open singles: Freeman defeated Bacon, 6-2, 4-1; Rogers beat Jones, 6-3, 6-2; Noble defeated Goodwin, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Kewitt, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Kewitt, 6-3, 6-2; Dimes defeated Kewitt, 6-3, 6-2.

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] James McMahon, one of the New York fight promoters, is in town awaiting the arrival of Willie Ritchie, whom he hopes to sign with Cross. James, it is said, also is negotiating with Nate Lewis for Charley White and Emil Thier for Pankey McFarland. McMahon is in hopes he can interest Ritchie in a match with Lough Cross to be staged in New York about September 1, and says he is ready to guarantee the title-holder $15,000 to sign the papers. Ritchie is expected in Chicago about August 10. Cross, according to McMahon, is ready to sign the papers at once, only holding off until the champion can be satisfied. Cross is to receive 30 per cent. of the gross receipts after Ritchie has paid down his $15,000.

STRACHAN AND GRIFFEN SWEEP ONWENTSIA COURTS

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] California again proved to be a breeding place of top-notch tennis stars, for two native sons, offsprings of the Golden West, swept four opponents off the courts in the Western tennis championships today at Onwentsia, winning their way through two rounds of the play with consummate ease.

John Strachan and Clarence Griffen, "the boys from Frisco," were the star attractions of the day, and both more than lived up to advance predictions, each of them displaying a brand of tennis that has carried Californians to the front for years.

FIRST TIME ON ROD.

Although playing on rod courts for the first time in their careers, Strachan and Griffen were in no way troubled. Strachan disposed of Jerry Weber, the local intercollegiate star, in straight sets, and then as easily put Kenneth Macneil of Berwin out of the running. The score in the Weber match was 6-2 and 6-3, while Macneil fell 6-1 and 6-2. Griffen defeated D. A. Wiley of Evanston, 6-3 and 6-4, in his first battle, and W. U. Knight of Minneapolis 6-1 and 6-1, in his afterpiece. The Strachan-Weber contest was billed as the feature of the tournament, the two players being regarded as these youngsters.

Weber started as though he was going to eliminate the westerner, winning the first game on his service, but Strachan evened matters by taking the next game. Weber again made good with his speedy overhead drives in the third game, but Strachan mastered the local boy's serve in the fifth game, and, like all Californians that have gone before him, this proved

JOHNSON STANDS WITH PITCHERS IN ARGUMENT.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] President Ben Johnson has sent to umpires in the American League a bulletin covering the ruling on a pitcher dropping a ball while in the act of winding up. In the National League when a pitcher lets the ball slip from his hands it is classed a balk and runners are allowed to advance a base.

This ruling was made by President Lynch of the old league following an argument over the play in a recent game at St. Louis. According to the literal translation of the rules it is a balk, but Johnson differs.

DAVIS CUP HAS GREAT PAST.

Returns to United States After Ten Years.

Famous Trophy Put in Play Thirteen Years Ago.

British Players Have Won It Five Times.

(BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)

SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, July 28.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The Davis cup, emblematic of the world's tennis championship in lawn tennis, which returns to the United States after an absence of ten years, was first put in play in 1900. The trophy—a massive silver bowl—was the gift of Dwight F. Davis, who donated it with the idea of stimulating international competition in the court game. During the thirteen years which have elapsed since the gift the cup has been in play twelve seasons. The United States and England and Australia have all won and lost the prize, the most widely and frequently played-for international trophy on record.

During 1900 and 1901 the United States team successfully defended the cup. In 1902 the Doherty brothers carried it away to England. During the next four years the United States and Australian players led the contest for the cup, and finally in 1907 the famous Antipodean players, Brookes and Wilding, took the cup to Australia. There it stayed until last winter, when Parks, Dixon and Beamsley won it for the British Isles.

British Isles players have won the trophy five times, Australia has been successful four times and the United States three. More than fifty tennis experts have competed in the various matches, some of them playing for several years. The United States has entered ten times, England twelve, Australia eight, France three, Belgium two and Germany and South Africa one each.

The present tournament, which proved to be the greatest in the history of the trophy, involved eight teams. Play began early in June, with Germany defeating France at Wiesbaden, four matches to one. Then the United States team won from the Australian team, three matches to one; Germany and Canada both fell before the United States players, and Belgium, which drew a bye, previously won down before the Canadian, and with the winning of yesterday's crucial match against the English cup defenders the trophy and championship returns to America again.

TOM BUNDY HAS SOMEWHAT TO SAY.

"Well, I've got a good partner, anyway," said Tom Bundy on the Long Beach courts last night, when asked about his prospects in the coming match for the national doubles championship.

Tom was not very communicative, being too much interested in a little talk to the press. He was having with Cliff Herd, national intercollegiate champion. "To say the least, the result of the match will be a surprise," said Tom with a grin.

"Maurice couldn't have been in his best form when he met Parks, but he came back all right," said Tom. Bundy is playing a very strong game and his placement shots were especially good. Time after time he could draw Herd over to one corner of the court and then slip the ball back in the other corner. Herd was game and never let up for a minute. "I'll beat him," said Tom after that one," said Herd, after an especially wild placement point.

Bundy expects to leave here in a couple of weeks with Mrs. Bundy, and will play with her in several exhibition mixed doubles matches in the East. Bundy wouldn't say much about his chances of winning again, but he seemed to think that with a partner like McLoughlin he should worry.

Bull Serves as Family Horse.

(New York World.) A seven-year-old Guernsey bull is the most useful animal on the Fox brothers' farm of the town of Pewaukee. For four years the bull has acted in the capacity of a driving horse, and is especially popular with the children.

It is a common sight to see the animal trotting through the streets of Waukegan drawing a cart and guided by reins in the hands of a child. It is gentle and will stand unaided while the driver goes shopping. It, with two other bulls, has won many prizes at the different fairs throughout the country.

At the international dairy show in Milwaukee two years ago the bulls led the parade, and attracted much attention.

REPORT (R. I.) July 12.—[Have Dispatch.] The big touring car in which Mrs. French Vanderbilt was being driven up Johns street here this morning struck and knocked down Edward Connell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Connell. The boy was playing in the street and ran in front of the automobile. John J. Flynn, chauffeur for Mrs. Vanderbilt, jumped out and picked up the unconscious boy and took him to the doctor's office close by, where the doctor said everything possible would be done for the physician. Young Connell did not die.

the time and it is feared that the boy was taken home later by Vanderbilt.

NEW CONCERN ENTERS FIELD.*Local Capital Backs This Shipping Concern.*Service to Manzanillo in a Short Time.*Steamer Chehalis Chartered for the Run.

Service between this port and Manzanillo will be started within thirty days by the West Coast Steamship Company, which was recently organized here with $150,000 capitalization. This announcement was made yesterday by General Manager Joseph A. Culver of the company in reporting the chartering of the Sutton and Christensen steamer Chehalis.

"I am not at liberty to say who are backing this company," stated Culver, "but I am sure that they are local men who have large mining and plantation interests along the Mexican west coast. The service is really to afford an outlet for the products of industries controlled by these men, but a secondary object is to knit this port with west coast ports for their mutual benefit."

The Chehalis is well known to local shipping men, having recently been in service between this port and Puget Sound ports. It is 115 feet long, 15 feet wide and 421 tons net, with a capacity for from 1100 to 1200 barrels of oil, and for fifty first-class passengers.

At present the Chehalis is under charter as a lumber carrier. This charter still has some weeks to run, as soon as it expires, the vessel will be overhauled and sent here under the new registry.

"The new service presupposes an early end to hostilities on the Mexican west coast," stated Culver. "Just as soon as settled conditions obtain there will be a great boom along the whole coast from here south, particularly as the Panama Canal is to be opened. This will make a demand for better steamship service."

Culver, with C. G. Moore, the secretary of the company, are in active charge of the company's affairs. When the Chehalis goes into service this port will become the home port for the steamers of two maritime concerns. The other is the independent Steamship Company, which furnishes service to San Francisco.

Before the beginning of the hydrographic survey of the Gulf of California, a number of concerns maintaining service between this port and Mexican ports. The revolution not only resulted in a dropping off in business, but oftentimes resulted in the seizure of vessels. Naturally, as time passed, the different companies withdrew their service, until now there are but one or two concerns that make any pretense of reaching Mexican west coast ports.

ON THE MAP.
ALL UNION MAP NOW.
This city is on the Union Pacific map. Visual evidence of this was furnished yesterday when the first batch of Union Pacific folders issued since the final dissolution decree were received here. In the maps accompanying these folders this city and San Francisco and Portland are shown as the Pacific Coast terminals of the system, reached by lines of deepest red, while the Southern Pacific from here east is shown as a faint, uncertain black line that differs in no way from the Rock Island or any other road.

In other words, the dissolution is now a reality. Another reality is that the Union Pacific and Salt Lake are now joined together in a traffic agreement that makes the last in a way a subsidiary of the former. Another evidence of the dissolution is furnished by the fact that the Union Pacific, Oregon Short Line and Oregon-Washington Railway and Navigation Company are grouped together as the Union Pacific system, with the Salt Lake classified as a connecting line.

No Jurisdiction.
That jurisdiction over sanitation lies with the municipality was the finding of the State Railroad Commission in dismissing the complaint of the city of Santa Paula against the Santa Clara Water and Irrigation Company, alleging that the defendant ran water through the city in a open ditch in an unsanitary manner.

More Crossings.
Permission has been granted the Southern Pacific by the State Railroad Commission to construct a side track at grade across Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets in Imperial and to the city of Arcadia to construct a public highway at grade across the Southern Pacific. Application has been made to the commission by this city to construct a side track at grade across the tracks of the Southern Pacific and by the Supervisors of San Bernardino county to construct a highway at grade across the tracks of the Santa Fe at the station grounds at Cucamonga and to remove the crossing over the same road at Oro Grande station to a point one-half mile north.

To Salt Lake City.
L. M. Fuller, advertising agent for the Salt Lake, will leave Saturday for Salt Lake City to present the Clark road at the gathering of advertising representatives of all railroads west of the Mississippi. He will be accompanied by Mrs. J. M. Fuller. The Commercial Club of the Utah capital is the father of the movement and the men who write the folders that are supposed to induce travelers to be guests of that body during their entire sojourn of three days in Salt Lake City, as well as on trips to the Bingham mining district, the Yellowstone National Park. Wives of advertising men are also invited.

Extended Time.
An order extending the time when the Wilmington Transportation Company must answer the complaint filed with the State Railroad Commission against its rates was issued Saturday by the commission. Under this order the company is given ten days following the Supreme Court's decision in the question of the commission's jurisdiction over "high-sea" traffic before it will be called on to answer the rate complaint.

Leaves Later.
To accommodate Saturday sojourners at Balboa Beach, the Pacific Electric will hereafter operate a car out of that place at 11:10 o'clock each Saturday night. This is one hour later than the last car has left heretofore.

"Supervisor" Norton.

rest Norton registered an emphatic "No."

SURPRISING FLOT.

"Why, Norton, you thought you wanted to bring a suit to decide the legality of the fee system," said one of his conferees.

"Maybe I did," said Norton, "but I am against anything that comes from the District Attorney's office."

The vote is now on record in the Board of Supervisors' files that Norton opposed to a legal test of the fee system. He therefore is really against the plan he has advocated in the quasi-socialist sheets and in interviews. The referendum petition, was aimed at the fee system as well as against increases in salary.

The proposed recall petitions against Norton may gain signatures among Socialists if they find he is trying to straddle both sides of the fence.

FREDERICKS' LETTER.

Let the letter of Dist-Atty Frederick to the Board of Supervisors be made:

"Replying to your request of the 22nd inst. for an opinion as to whether or not the county could determine definitely the question as to whether the county could deprive the four fee officers of their fees during the present term of office by reason of charter provision forbidding a change in their compensation during their term, I would have suggested that you authorize this suit to be brought as early as possible."

"Of course, my views of the law are as they were when I advised you in preparing the ordinance. However, if there are others—and I judge from public discussion that there are—who differ with me, they can join in the suit as friends of the court, and in that way, the matter can be definitely settled in time for the permanent ordinance."

SHERIFF TO FIGHT.
There is absolutely nothing in this letter to awaken any opposition from Norton. Apparently the District Attorney is a disinterested party. The sheriff has retained counsel and of course intends to fight the case, as his fees and emoluments amount to many thousands of dollars.

"My part in the matter is very simple," said Capt. Fredericks. "When the salary ordinance was drawn up at the request of the Supervisors, we left in the present system of fees for the charter provides that nothing shall affect salaries or fees of the incumbents of the department. In other words the ordinance followed the charter."

"Now there seems to be a difference of opinion as to whether the sheriff will naturally consent to the new system being left in. The way to try the issue is by a suit. As the sheriff is perhaps the most concerned, he will naturally consent to the suit. I cannot understand Norton's attitude. I thought he was against fees."

The other Supervisors are awaiting with much interest the result of their colleagues' grations will next take him. It is even possible he will withdraw his support of David Evans, chairman of the Civil Service Commission, and declare Evans is illegally in office.

Possibly he will support a statement for police to be put to rest. The Board of Supervisors, all the county attaches declare their intention to keep a scrap-book containing allusions to Supervisor Norton's public acts. They say it will be amusing.

ROW OVER BILLS.
At the afternoon session of the board Norton essayed the role of watchdog of the treasury.

Two bills of the Thiel Detective Agency came up for approval. The total was about $650 for work done in the prosecution of the Rial case. The bills were introduced by G. P. Friess by the bureau came.

"I don't approve these bills," said Norton. "The information about the Rial case has been obtained at little cost. I want to see for Fred L. Baker, a lawyer who knows about the Rial case."

"And I will send Capt. Fredericks," said Chairman Priddy. "We have a good deal of confidence in what he says."

Capt. Fredericks soon appeared, accompanied by Deputy District Attorney Shannon, who prosecuted Rial.

Capt. Fredericks said that Attorney Baker came to him with information concerning the confidence game of Rial and his associates. The District Attorney said that he had not known Baker, did not know who, if anyone, was back of him and naturally wanted an independent investigation of the situation.

"The men who were your clients?" asked Chairman Priddy. "They were good citizens," replied Baker. "Further than that I refuse to say. I am a lawyer and I know the law."

Supervisor Norton. He knows the details."

Baker said he would not question the right of Priddy to secure information, but he declared that there were persons in Los Angeles who could wear the tracks of the Santa Fe at the station grounds at Cucamonga and to remove the crossing over the same road at Oro Grande station to a point one-half mile north.

benefit of those present that Chairman Priddy is the member who was appointed by this board to go over all secret service accounts with me. They are also expected by a special committee of the grand jury. "You do not ask for information in good faith, Mr. Norton. I believe you are trying to gain information for someone else just as you did when you asked who was to pay ex-Judge Gray."

"It might be that I am called upon to investigate some member of the Board of Supervisors," said Chairman Priddy. "Surely I would not do that to him just what detectives were employed to watch him. Mr. Norton, I don't believe an angel from heaven can convince you that anything coming from my office is on the square, but I don't care what your opinion is."

Capt. Fredericks walked away. After he reached a safe distance Norton, who had been huddled in his chair, stood up and with his fist, exclaiming: "Well, I consent to honor these demands."

The detective agency will bring suit against the county to recover the amount and seek for the bill unless the other Supervisors override Norton's objections, based on his personal dislike of the District Attorney.

HINDU CARPS AT AMERICAN WAYS.

THOUSANDS NEED SPIRITUAL AID IN CALIFORNIA.

Yankees Contribute Money to Do Fray Expenses of Missionaries, but Entirely Ignore the Hundreds Who Have Come to California to Locate. Couple Plans to Invade Africa.

BANNING, July 28.—Share criticism of the difference practiced toward Hindus by the modern church was contained in the remarks of Dr. Paul Chilo, a native Hindu, who is a graduate from the University of Bombay and of Syracuse, N. Y. The missionary is on the west coast to lay the foundation for Christianizing the 4000 Hindus now in California, Oregon and Washington. He is an emissary of the American Bible society.

The missionary declares that, while many missionaries are being sent to Hindoostan annually, and many millions of dollars with them as foreign mission funds, the churches of the west coast have made no effort to better the moral condition of the Hindus in a spiritual way.

He stated that the Hindus in this country are in a state of spiritual darkness, but on the other hand, they have been abandoned by the church.

The Hindus here are Buddhists, a religion which the missionary declares is not devoid of good principles, and that the Hindus in this country are in a state of spiritual darkness, but on the other hand, they have been abandoned by the church.

Another thing that the Hindu in this country is the fact that many Americans have adopted the ancient Hindu philosophical beliefs. They think it strange that missionaries go to the foreign land of Hindoostan to teach Christianity, while at the same time the Hindu coming here finds Americans adopting a religion which the American in Hindoostan is trying to have the Hindu discard.

Chilo was in Bombay at the time William Jennings Bryan delivered his address there on "The Prince of Peace" before an audience of 10,000, and declared the revolutionary spirit was as strong at the time that a less pacifying subject matter was being presented.

OFFICER IS BOWLED OVER.

Three Couples From Placencia Hitting the High Places Were Taken in on Charge of Reckless Driving.

SANTA ANA, July 28.—Three couples from Placencia in three rigs were driving abreast rapidly on South Main street last night, and the rig driven by Louis Nalley ran into a rig owned by Officer Theodore Lacy.

Lacy's buggy was smashed and his fine driving mare was bowled over on her back, but she escaped with little harm.

Nalley and Samuel Waters were arrested by Lacy, who saw the accident from the sidewalk, to which place he jumped when he saw the trio of rigs coming. They were charged with reckless driving.

Robert Poor, who is reported by the officer to have become abusive, is charged with disturbing the peace. Poor declared he had as much money as anyone in Santa Ana. When he was searched he had 60 cents in his pockets. Poor pleaded not guilty to the charge of disturbing the peace.

Yester morning a grocery store owned by Perry Taylor at No. 911 West Pine street was partially destroyed by fire. The loss was estimated at $1275. Taylor says that he thinks a burglar entered the store Sunday morning and left a burning fire for the fire department.

When the firemen arrived they found a door of the place open. Taylor says he locked every door Saturday night.

ANCIENT OPALASCENT GLASS.

Have Collection of Ornaments That Date Back Far Beyond the Beginning of the Christian Era.

[Dallas News.] Opalescent ornaments of ancient design and rare color and among the most prized relics of the Palestine of antiquity, form the newest and most valuable collection of its kind at Philadelphia University Museum. A few days ago specimens of Bible art were acquired by the museum at a cost of $12,000. The collection is historically most important, because of the light it throws upon the skill of the ancient craftsman.

In the collection are 222 pieces of opalescent glassware, with several pieces of beads, bracelets and anklets recovered from tombs in Palestine and Syria. Many are extraordinary in the beauty of their design and some are utterly impossible of reproduction today. Hagar, Hebron, Bethlehem and Damascus are among the Old World cities whose tombs have contributed to the collection.

All of the ornaments date back centuries before the Christian era. Most of them are of Roman glass and were discovered in tombs which were either those of Romans or of Jews who became Romanized under the sway of Herod the Great. Some of the ornaments are of the burial grounds of orthodox Jews and most have been fashioned as early as the days of the captivity. They are among the most beautiful of ancient glassware and bear out the classical writer Pliny, who ascribed the discovery of glass making to the Jews, says the Buffalo Express.

The first of this glass was unearthed a few years ago by laborers employed in constructing a railway in Palestine, and is believed to have been the property of the officers of Augustus Caesar who were buried in the land of the Jews. The discoveries were so unexpected and the ornaments so rich that explorations were started in many diverse parts of Palestine. The result of one of these explorations is the collection just brought to this city.

The objects in the collection are usually those that were useful as well as ornamental. Among them are dishes for the table, vessels of ornamental design and a number of toilet articles. In the last named class are instruments for powdering, painting and making-up, which were open to the eyes of a modern dealer in cosmetics. The ancient toilet bottles, into which the women of antiquity pretended to blow the perfume of their own bodies, are found to be nothing more than cleverly-constructed receptacles for paint and powder, in many of which the original cosmetics are still to be found.

In the collection are also many beautiful cold cream and oil jars for the toilet table. They are complete in design and the glass used in their construction glows with opalescent light.

The earliest examples of the glass are molded around cores of sand. Those of the second period were molded in layers and in delicate shapes fitted to their uses. When the ancient finally learned to blow glass, the blowing glass ornaments came within the reach of everyone. Records exist, however, of times when Nero paid $10,000 for a rare vase of the earlier period.

Some of the glass ornaments seem to be portraits, while others were probably used as charms and talismans. The latter may have been the individual idols or household gods of the Romans. But it is interesting to note that most of them come from the tombs of women, indicating that the women of antiquity were not only luxury-loving, but were highly respected by the men.

Crown City Boosters Want Place on Boulevard.

Delegation to Capital to Further the Plans.

Board of Equalization Shows a Charitable Mood.

PASADENA, July 28.—Pasadena will leave any stone unturned in its efforts to become a point on the proposed State highway between Los Angeles and Bakersfield.

Following the receipt of a letter from Earl Freeman, secretary in the State department of engineering at Sacramento, in which the writer states that there will be a public hearing there next Friday, the special committee of the Board of Trade, which has been urging the adoption of the Pasadena-Vincent Mountains route, met yesterday afternoon and determined to send three representatives to the capital. The committee consists of C. D. Daggett, chairman; D. J. McPherson, J. B. Coulton, T. D. Allen and Joseph Welch of the Board of Trade, and C. P. Lukens and John McDonald of the Pasadena Realty Board. These who are to go to Sacramento are Daggett, Allen and W. F. Knight, Knight is president of the Board of Trade.

Last night it had not been definitely decided when the three will leave, but they will probably go tomorrow morning. No set program has been agreed on. They will appear at the conference to be held there and give reasons why the desired route should be accepted.

"To have this road pass through here would be a great benefit," said Daggett yesterday.

"It would connect Pasadena, Los Angeles and all Southern California with the Sierra, so that it would be no trip at all to the mountains."

The letter received by the Board of Trade from Secretary Freeman, under date of the 24th inst., follows: "At a meeting of the advisory board today it was decided that on Friday, August 1, the routes of the State highway between Los Angeles and Bakersfield, and between Los Angeles and Fresno and Bakersfield, would be determined. Yielding to the solicitations of various localities, the advisory board concluded to listen to arguments by advocates of the different routes."

The Pacific Electric Railway Company yesterday officially gave out the schedule under which the new Los Angeles-San Bernardino line will be operated beginning tomorrow. Cars will run every twenty minutes, leaving Montrose street and Lincoln avenue beginning at 5:32 a. m. and ending at 11:30 p. m. There will be a wait of twenty-five minutes after 5:32 p. m. The twenty-minute service will continue until 1:30 a. m. After 1:30 p. m. cars will not run farther east on Colorado street than Los Robles avenue.

Entertaining to Theaters.

Persons Council Contemplates Closing All Places of Amusement on the Fourth of July.

POMONA, July 28.—The mooted question of whether or not to pass an ordinance prohibiting the keeping open of theaters here on Sunday still continues to occupy the minds of the local City Council. The Pomona City Council has been in session since last night, and has been discussing the ordinance for several hours.

The council has been interviewing the members of the Ministerial Union, churchmen and other residents and it is said that the Council is ready to act in accordance with the will of the majority of the people.

It is known that in this State decisions have been rendered both for and against Sunday closing. Mayor Vandenberg says that the Council could proceed and pass an ordinance which would close the theaters on Sundays, and thereafter anyone violating the ordinance could be arrested and such a person would then have to close his theater or fight the case in the courts. The city would then be forced to defend its action and the courts would decide.

The ministers, representing their congregations, have voted to sustain the Council in whatever action it may take in the matter of Sunday closing.

It has been suggested that in case an ordinance were passed putting through the ordinance, the Council might consider legislation that would make it a misdemeanor, before taking any definite action.

NEWS BRIEFS.

Dr. Alfred C. Reed and his father-in-law, Thomas Benton Fredendall, left today for a trip to Laguna Beach, where they will spend the summer.

Dr. Reed, who was for two years connected with the United States Marine Hospital Service stationed at Ellis Island, gave an interesting talk on the national problem of immigration which is now of such intense interest to Southern California because of the near completion of the Panama Canal. Dr. Reed has had special opportunities to gather valuable data on the subject of immigration. He will sail in a few days with his wife for China, being under appointment in the medical staff of the Yale University of China.

The institution is controlled by alumni of Yale and the Chinese government is interested in the support of the medical department. Dr. Reed and his wife are both graduates of Pomona College.

Prof. F. P. Brackett in charge of the government weather observation bureau at Pomona College, recently had an extended conference with R. Gregg, senior research observer of Mt. Weather, Va., at the observatory on Mt. Wilson, which Mr. Gregg has been visiting. Mr. Gregg is now en route to Mt. Whitney, where he will carry on some observations in connection with the weather bureau.

Prof. Brackett and a party are also about to leave for Mt. Whitney.

MISSION DAY AT ASSEMBLY.

Riverside Man Presents Homely Truths.

Long Beach Votes Wednesday on Sewer Bonds.

LONG BEACH, July 28.—Today was mission day with the Christian assembly, and several hundred delegates arrived today for the closing week's services. The program was in charge of the State Evangelizing Board and Dr. G. M. Anderson of Riverside gave some unique ideas in his paper on "Growing Faith," in which comparison of the missionary society was made with a growing boy, growing so fast and with such a ravenous appetite that his nurse (the church) is kept hovering on the edge of bankruptcy.

An interesting feature of the morning hours was on the theme, "The Past—A Retrospect," speeches of a volunteer nature being made by Rev. P. M. Doring of Los Angeles, who has been in California over twenty years; Dr. E. D. Miner of Los Angeles, in the ministry over fifty years; Dr. H. W. Brown of Los Angeles, thirty-seven years' experience; W. A. Conley, for twelve years in California work, and Rev. J. W. Uter of Long Beach, who has been in the ministry for thirty years.

Speaking of "Christian Courtesy," Dr. McClellan said it was a homely virtue, easily cultivated, acquired and easily lost. He emphasized the need of it in home, church and business life.

The afternoon was devoted to a program by the "Attorney Aid Society" of the convention, with Mrs. A. F. Plabert presiding. Papers were read by Mrs. Scott Anderson, Mrs. Foster Griffith and Mrs. E. R. Rodda. The program closed with an election of officers which resulted in the election of Mrs. R. L. Brown as president; Mrs. S. S. Brown as secretary; Mrs. J. W. Uter as treasurer; and Mrs. J. W. Uter as secretary.

Dr. McClellan gave an illustrated lecture on Australia to a large audience. Tomorrow's session will be devoted to evangelizing reports and methods, with papers on "Rural Evangelism," by Rev. G. W. Thompson; "City Evangelism," by E. H. Keller; "Type of Meeting for a Mission," by J. W. Uter; "Evangelism," by Roger L. Clark; "The Bible-school and Home Missions," by E. H. Keller; and "The Un-attached," by Thomas G. Pinn.

ELECTION WEDNESDAY.

Wednesday the voters of Long Beach will be asked to vote upon the question of a $400,000 bond issue for the construction of a main sewer and supplementary outfall sewer system, which will cover practically the entire city and also a bond issue of $100,000 for the construction of a new city hall.

The necessity of both propositions is deemed so urgent that a committee has been appointed to canvass the city and to urge the voters to support the propositions.

The committee has been conducting an active campaign for the bonds, and this evening predicted the success of the propositions.

UNMEASURED INDIGNATION.

SOUTH PASADENA CITIZENS ARE EXCEEDINGLY ANGRY.

Los Angeles Gas Company Removes Suburban City from the Map by an Arbitrary Order, and Denounces Are Displaced—Destructive Gas First Cause Annoyance.

South Pasadena, July 28.—So heated has become the indignation because of the desertion of South Pasadena by representatives of the Los Angeles Gas Company that there is talk of an appeal to the State Railroad Commission and some have suggested a strike against the payment of the bills. A mass meeting to discuss the situation will be called some time this week. It has been suggested that the city can recall the franchise privileges granted recently by the City Trustees to the company that has been deserting the city.

Immediately after the franchise was granted the office was closed and the residents were told that the headquarters would be in Los Angeles. The company has been deserting the city for some time, and the residents are angry.

NEW THRILLS FOR SCREEN.

Millionaire Sportsman Is Be-

Frank Garbutt and Hobart Bosworth Combine.

"Sea Wolf" First of Series to Be Staged.

Absolutely the greatest deal which has been consummated in the moving-picture world in half a decade was closed yesterday when incorporation papers were signed and sent to Sacramento, creating "Bosworth Incorporated."

At the helm will be no less a personage than Hobart Bosworth, actor of distinction, and for the past few years producing director of the great

Felbig company. Behind the scenes are the millions of Frank A. Garbutt, the greatest sportsman on this coast, who has tried his hand at everything from auto racing and yachting to flying, and all with signal success.

Under the articles of incorporation

Hobart Bosworth is president; H. T.

Rudolph, secretary, and Frank A. Garbutt, treasurer. Active work is to be begun at once, and the first film which the new concern will produce will be that great story, "The Sea Wolf."

It will cost not less than $50,000 to reproduce this great story on the screen. Eight reels at least will be used, and with the great ferry wreck in Frisco Bay, with which the story opens, and the thrilling cruise itself,

Hobart Bosworth has tackled an understanding which, when successfully completed, will mark a new epoch in moving-picture annals.

The greatest asset of the new company is its contract with Jack London which will last from four to five years.

Realizing that the London types of people cannot be depicted by ordinary picture folk, Mr. Bosworth is selecting a company with great care, following the story's descriptions carefully and laying no little stress on the superb illustrations which have accompanied most of the stories. When produced, the films will have passed the critical inspection of Jack London himself, and, if they satisfy him, certainly they will be above public criticism.

That these stories will appeal to all no one questions. They are strong and rugged, like the outdoor life they tell of the men and women are real fish-and-blood creatures. Wolf Larsen clutches the piny one by the throat and squeezes him till he drops just to show him that he has no legiti-mate excuse for living.

There will be thrown on the screen weird tales of the South Sea islands, and those heart-stagging tales of Smoke Believ in the frozen north, and the Bosworth company will produce them in the same manner in which the scenes are laid. Norse or Likuna are all alike to the intrepid camera men.

In this first film, Hobart Bosworth will be Wolf Larsen. Big and powerful, he typifies this man of muscle and primitive logic. Now they are searching for a woman who will make an ideal Maude, and expect to announce their success in a few days.

Unlike the ordinary film makers, the Bosworth company will not have a big local plant and a stock organization. No one company of people

Although not a denominational school, the academy is pervaded throughout by a positive Christian influence. The students are those who are Christian in character in the broadest sense of that term.

The location of the school at Pasadena is a most desirable one, and while away from the business center of San Diego, is well within the city limits.

Extensive training in the secular and necessary branches of both lower and higher school curriculum forms a part of the school life and this is supplemented by the most thorough training as makes for the best possible physique in growing boys. Cleanliness and wholesome sports are encouraged and the students are given the best guidance of Mrs. Davis, wife of Capt.

Bridge Luncheon.

Mrs. Edward A. Featherstone entertained yesterday afternoon at her home on West Twenty-seventh street with a delightful bridge luncheon, complimenting Mrs. William F. Tabbeta of Mobile, Ala., who is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Arthur G. Gage.

The table held as a centerpiece a low mound of white tiger lilies and foliage with bows of green tulle. Harmonizing cards marked covers for Mrs. Featherstone, Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Tabbeta, Mrs. William James Doren, Mrs. Karl Kurts, Mrs. O. A. Vickery, Mrs. Walter Perry Story and Mrs. Hugh McFarland.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Gage entertained with a dinner party in honor of Mrs. Tabbeta at their home, No. 474 New Hampshire street. Centering the table was a basket of sweet peas and ferns. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Tabbeta, Mrs. Mary A. Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Doren, Mrs. Edward A. Featherstone, Mr. and Mrs. Will Linn, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Vickery, Dr. and Mrs. Karl Kurts, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Perry Story, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Letts and Mr. and Mrs. William T. Mines.

Supper Dance.

Mrs. William Kimball of Springfield, Mass., for whom many charming affairs are being given, was the complimented guest at a supper dance at the Rumpart apartments Saturday evening, the affair being given by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Allen Simpson.

Myriad electric lights and Japanese lanterns were strung around the garden, while a low basket filled with Eucharis, carnations and ferns centered each of the small tables at which a "Dutch" supper was served.

Guests were Mrs. William M. Kimball, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stanley of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Fryman, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart F. McFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Easton, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hudson, Dr. and Mrs. Diamond of Hot Springs, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Stearns, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Lester L. Robinson, Mrs. Frances Josephine Holmes, Miss Helen Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Prosser, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Richardson, and Messrs. Harry Ham, Robert Richards, and Lloyd Greppin.

At Home.

Mrs. F. S. Fairbanks, No. 1234 Arapahoe street, will be at home informally Thursday afternoon, from 4 to 6. Her daughter, Mrs. Johnson Peterbaugh of San Diego, is her house guest.

Afternoon Tea.

A recent enjoyable affair was an afternoon tea given by Mrs. Wiloughby Rodman at her home, No. 2845 Orchard avenue, when Mrs. Julie Murray, who is to be married August 23 to Thomas Fenton Knight, shared honors with Mrs. Maurice Realey of Washington, a charming visitor in the city.

Shasta daisies, coropis and ferns were deftly arranged about the house. Assisting the hostess in receiving were Mrs. Charles C. Carpenter, Mrs. George Wiley Wells, Mrs. Cliff Page, Miss Decatur Page, Mrs. Charles C. Parker, Mrs. Melville Eshman, Mrs. William C. Kerckhoff, Miss Martha Woolwine, Miss Kate Van Noy, and Miss Florence Wood. Fifty guests were entertained.

Earlier in the afternoon Mrs. Rodman was hostess at a bridge party, complimenting Mrs. John Henry of Birmingham, Ala.

Birthday Party.

An occasion of more than usual interest to the wee society folk of the city was the third birthday anniversary dinner party given by Miss Bettie Brink, three-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Brink, at their Santa-street home Saturday. Twelve children were present. A birthday cake with three diminutive candles graced the center of the festive board, and in each of twelve pieces was imbedded a tiny china doll, a souvenir of the occasion.

Guest of Parents.

Mrs. C. F. McDowell, wife of Lieut. C. F. McDowell, U.S. and her little daughter, Mercedes, are guests at the home of Mrs. McDowell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Ellis, No. 2125 Western avenue.

Arrive at Yokohama.

A cable to D. F. Robertson, manager of the steamship department of the California Savings Bank, announces the arrival at Yokohama of the following Angelenos, who recently left this city on a tour around the world: Mrs. Robert C. Gilla, Miss Adelaide Gilla, John W. Gill, Mr. and Mrs. Rubenall, Miss and Mrs. F. L. Hosack, Miss Eleanor Lex, Miss May D. Lex, Frank Palomares, Miss H. Zieley and W. E. Rabbeth.

Birthday Party.

Mrs. William Ely, No. 3213 Compton avenue, entertained with a five hundred party recently in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Invited guests were Mrs. Charles Kuhnen, Mrs. Ernest Rodas, Mrs. William Ely, Mrs. Robert Kuller, Mrs. Charles Gets, Mrs. Ivon Parker, Mrs. Charles Hoag, Mrs. William Showell, Mrs. John Morgan, Mrs. F. Up and Down Broadway.

SALT LAKE COMES BACK; IT'S UP TO DICK TO BUY.

BY GARDNER BRADFORD.

THEY say all the world loves a lover, and I believe it true that all the world loves a good come-back, too. All of which is preambles to recalling what I wrote when Dick Ferris, with Mormon dust on his coat, arrived safe and sound, and so pentent, on our own Broadway.

As stated at that time, Dick was very frank in declaring that he would rather be dead here than alive there and a lot of things more or less unpalatable provided you lived in Salt Lake. And now comes the laugh, for here is what the Goodwin Weekly of Salt Lake has to say by way of reply:

"I don't know just the shade of despatch bestowed by a San Francisco saloon-keeper on water, and so can't measure the sentiment of hostility Mr. Ferris directs at Salt Lake. But whatever mean names he has called this city, he is them things. "Mr. Ferris is a very capable manager, and probably the worst actor now living and enjoying freedom from captivity. He received a very decent salary for his service at the Utah, according to his own rather boastful representation; and it is the money made here with which he is purchasing sloopy popularity in the refectories of Los Angeles. He isn't as wise about it as he might be, for Ferris friends will love him quite as long and applaud quite as loudly his commendation of a city that is much too good for him—providing always he buys whenever they are thirsty, and never asks them to reciprocate.

"Meantime, Salt Lake people will try and remember that Dick Ferris sings a different sort of tune just now; and that he values friends only while he can use them."

Go over to Salt Lake and set 'em up, Dick, it's on you. Funny though how folks like Los Angeles after they come back here from somewhere else.

I presume that we will this season see that latest success of Mrs. Fleck, called "The High Road." It is Edward Sheldon's on modernity in the moral status of the woman who "crossed the sands" rehabilitation.

It is a splendid example of the gambler the theatrical producer takes for it was a flat failure in Montreal where it was first produced, made a hit in the Middle West including Indianapolis, only to fall down in Chicago, was a great success for ten weeks in New York, and in Boston drew for the Titian-haired actress the greatest houses she ever played to.

Ran across Vernon Spencer yesterday, fresh returned from a six weeks' vacation in Hawaii. The eminent pianist gave some recitals while there and on one occasion played for the prisoners at the Oahu prison. In return the convict quartette rendered Hawaiian songs, better than he ever heard them before.

Vaudeville. LOTS OF GIRLS AT ORPHEUM. TRAINED NURSES AND PADACE GIRLS ON BILL.

Empress Programme Features Song and Patter Artists of First Water and the Whirlwind Arabs. Picture Houses Surpass Themselves With Tempting Offerings.

A chorus in the immaculate white robes of hospital, making them look—of course—like angels, with a "musical directress" in the same dazzling gear.

That's "The Trained Nurse," one of the big attractions at the Orpheum this week. It's a jolly musical play in tabloid form, one of Jesse Lasky's clever offerings, the joint work of William Le Baron, who wrote the book, Leo Edwards, who composed the pretty musical numbers, and Blanche Merrill, who turned out the lyrics.

The scene of "The Trained Nurse" is, as you naturally suppose, a hospital, an attractive place with a glass roof and glass walls through which you see a lovely bit of landscape. Here Sammy Sloan, well played and sung by Henry Bergman, comes with a purely fictitious ailment merely because the girl he loves is one of the nurses. Susan Grey, also well sung and well acted, is the nurse; Gladys does the singing and acting. Susan confesses to Sammy that she loves him, but cannot marry him because she has been hired to attract rich patients and keep them there indefinitely. But Sammy doesn't care, and the amusing little musical comedy ends to the sound of wedding bells, the last number being "The Dancing Wedding," participated in by every able-bodied person in the hospital.

Plenty of punch in "The Trained Nurse," a whole rosary of tuneful things, some fun and some very good dancing in ragged measures. The comedy is exceedingly well staged.

Another unusually attractive offering is that of the London Palace Girls, eight recent importations. The Palace Girls dance many graceful and fantastic figures. They are clad in black and white—not a touch of color—and the background against which they joyously disport themselves is a huge black and white pencil sketch in outline, trees, a lake, and the amusing little musical comedy ends to the sound of wedding bells, the last number being "The Dancing Wedding," participated in by every able-bodied person in the hospital.

The Four Le Grooms comes from Europe. They are contentions whose suppleness and cleverness place them in a class by themselves. Nobody can touch 'em. Hal Davis and Inez Macaulay present a playlet called "The Girl From Child's." A crude affair, by no means worthy of their dramatic powers. An echo of "The Twelve-Pound Look"—but what a far, far cry!

The Five Musical Gormans, three of them good-looking girls, one a small boy, the other a man, prove their title by playing on drums and brass things. Miss Katherine Gorman handling the cornet very well. Cecile Beresford, English comedienne, sings sentimental songs touched with the comic spirit, and plays her own accompaniments.

That howling little farce, "A Dramatic Cartoon," is held over, and so is the musical offering of Frank Coombe and Ernest Aldwell.

Empress.

Bright and clever character singers and patterers are Plesano and Ringham, one (but which one?) appearing as an Italian fruit vendor, the other a stout Irish girl. Their number is one of the most entertaining at the Empress Theater this week.

Plesano's (or Ringham's) Dago is as perfect a characterization as you will see for many a day. Moreover, it is done without exaggeration. The fun he hands out, too, is in keeping with the part, and so are the songs he sings. Ringham's sallies are also mirth-provoking.

Song and patter, with clever dancing added, are also offered by Morris and Beasley, announced on the bill as "a fascinating young woman" and "a clever young man." They are not lent dallying unduly with the truth this time. Both young actors have a certain air of good breeding which attracts, even when their joking isn't refined.

And song and patter and dance are the stock in trade of Gus Hibbert and Harold Kennedy, who come with black faces and white gloves and a mere soup-song of southern accent.

To turn from patter to things that are a play, "Scandal," given by Plesano and Ringham, Harry Stephens, Adelaide Fairchild. It's a play of "Scandal." There's a good twist of unexpected humor in the tragedy into a farce. It is done by these four actors.

White, we understand, is the name of "Scandal." There's a good twist of unexpected humor in the tragedy into a farce. It is done by these four actors.

The three Booths, one of them a beautiful girl, and the other two are gorgeous and most novel, but their art is a little tiresome, so bizarre, so frenzied, so fascinating that custom state it. These dark-skinned tainers are always welcome.

...four years ago the writer, a pure food investigator for a local daily, came across a package of butter that was produced by a local boy of some note. The butter was of a fine quality, and the presence of an imitated label, therefore upon presenting this to the Food Commissioner's office he learned this: That this imitator's chemist did not have apparatus sufficient to make accurate and quality analyses. He took all samples to the laboratory where this same product was produced. This creamery had a well equipped laboratory, and also the greatest financial power backing the imitator's political aspirations. Again let me reflect on the label of today's issue, the cocoa or chocolate was not harmful, but it was not pure.

NEWS BRIEFS

Imperial county has undoubtedly lead the counties of the State in percentage of increase in valuation in the last year. The Assessor's returns show a 100 per cent increase in the valuation of the county.

NEWS BRIEFS

Having purchased a number of dry goods boxes of a local store for a new year's alarm on the auto race course today, E. H. Pendleton found that one of the boxes was heavier than the rest. He opened it and found several hundred dollar worth of sweaters, which the porter of the store forgot to unpack. The goods were hurried back to the store, and Pendleton was made a present of the best in the lot.

A. W. Russell of Los Angeles came here today in search of his automobile. The police told him there was a machine found wrecked, with the number stripped from it, on the Nevada avenue boulevard near Sawtelle this morning. Russell found his stolen machine in the ditch, the front end smashed and the engine and the wheels missing.

an increase in the second place this year for the first time with a total of 73,359 acres. Cotton has now the third place with 16,940 acres, a great increase over any former year. There are planted to cantaloupes about 1000 acres more than ever before, and all products have been successfully marketed. There are at the time 13,126 head of cattle on the fields of the valley, and 32,390 hogs browsing around, with 32,956 sheep and 8981 horses and 2093 mules. There is in the valley 66,523 cows and 5277 colonies of bees. Surely the Imperial Valley is ready to do its part in feeding the multitude.

Two representatives of the Southern California Automobile Association have been for several days in the valley posting signs on all the valley roads for the benefit of tourists desiring to take the southern speed officer, who happened to have his stop watch on them at the time. None of the victims could stand of the traffic ordinance, which allows a speed of twenty miles per hour on the avenue, or of the arrests, admitting that the officer had allowed ample margin before making the arrest.

The first victims of the alluring course were C. A. Williams and E. B. Rivera, Jr. They were clocked at forty-four miles per hour each, and were enjoying a sack-and-sack race when the motorcycle officer held them up and stopped the contest.

J. L. Valley of the Studebaker agency in Los Angeles was taking one of the Studebaker racers out for a bit of a limbering-up jaunt through the foothills and when the speed clock caught him at 44 miles per hour and saw the long, straight-dipping road, it wouldn't behave. It was usual work about the kitchen of her coach home preparing supper. With her in the house was her 14-year-old son. She sent the lad to meet his father, who was returning home from the beach. When the father and son entered the house Mrs. Odell was tripped dead upon the floor, a .38-caliber pistol still grasped in her hand. No other reason can be assigned other than temporary mental failure. The home life of the Odells is said to have been happy and no contributing
